

Effortless questioning in English

sound confident even when in doubt

8 smart questions phrases

✓ Is this seat taken?

Ask this While looking for an empty place to sit, Say this instead of asking,

“is any one sitting here?”

“Is this seat booked?”

✓ Can I take a rain check?

If you are unable to attend some occasion say this, instead of saying

“ill join later”

“Ill come some other time”

“let us post pone the plan”

✓ Are we still on for today?

Ask this instead of saying,

“Is the plan cancelled?”

“Is everyone coming?”

“Is the party happening today?”

✓ Can I have a word with you?

Ask this instead of saying,

“I want to talk something with you”

“I want to discuss something, I will not take much time, but very little time of yours”

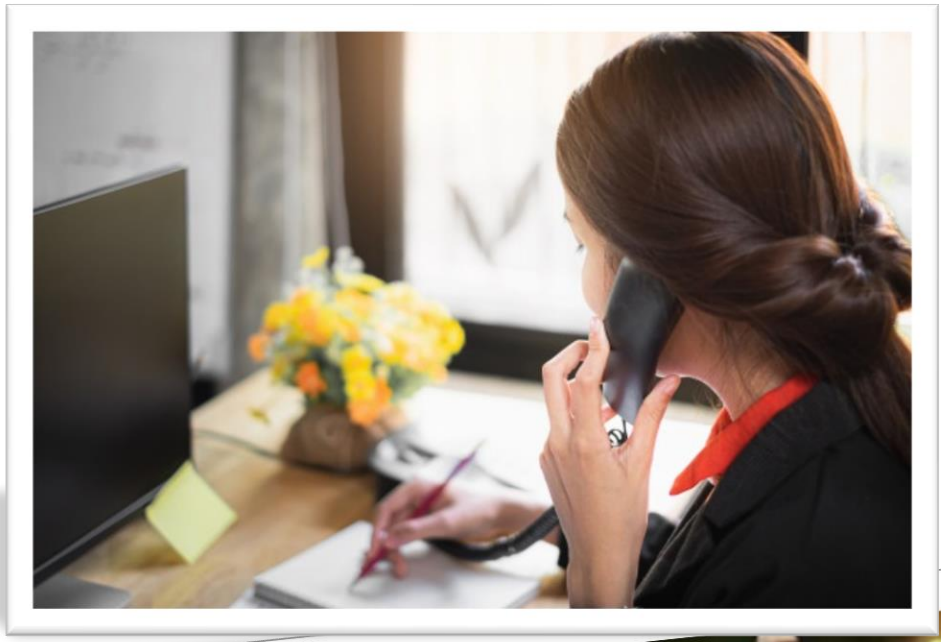

✓ When is a good time?

Ask this instead of saying,

“when are you free?”

“Are you free later?”

“I will call you later, tell me whenever you are not busy.”

✓ How's something coming along?

Ask this instead of saying,

"where has your project reached?"

"how is your work going on?"

"how is everything happening in your life?"

✓ Can I put you on hold?

Ask this instead of saying,

“wait”

“just a minute”

HAPPY LEARNING!

Keep learning with